1           Rune Storesund Statement of Qualifications

2                   Dr. Rune Storesund is a licensed Civil (California, Louisiana, Hawaii, Washington)
3 and Geotechnical (California) Engineer with 17 years of civil engineering experience and 12 years 4 of forensic engineering experience in the areas of geotechnical, water resource, and environmental 5 engineering. He provides civil forensics support for pre-trial review, engineering standard of care, 6 document/data review and synthesis, engineering contract review, forensic investigations and 7 analyses, failure mode analysis, legal visual aids & animations, and expert witness services. He 8 also has expertise on survey methods including Total Station, RTK GPS, and LiDAR. He has a 9 Doctorate of Engineering in Civil Systems and a Masters in Geotechnical Engineering from 10 University of California, Berkeley.

11           Dr. Storesund is also the Vice President of Storesund Engineering LLC, a California General 12 Contractor (Class A and Class B, Lic. No. 1008298). Storesund Engineering LLC performs civil 13 infrastructure projects, focused primarily on water resource infrastructure such as water storage and 14 distribution systems.

15           Dr. Storesund is the Executive Director of University of California, Berkeley’s Center for 16 Catastrophic Risk Management, a group of academic researchers and practitioners who recognize 17 the need for interdisciplinary solutions to avoid and mitigate tragic events. This group of 18 internationally recognized experts in the fields of engineering, social science, medicine, public
19 health, public policy, and law was formed following the tragic consequences of Hurricane Katrina
20 to formulate ways for researchers and experts to share their lifesaving knowledge and experience 21 with industry and government. Dr. Storesund serves as a technical reviewer for the National 22 Academy of Forensic Engineers (NAFE).
